What Next? 5 Steps to Study Abroad

1. View the Study Abroad 101 video
   - Take some time to sit and consider some of the questions outlined in this presentation regarding your personal goals and interests
   - Speak with your academic adviser, letting them know you’re considering study abroad

2. Visit http://studyabroad.bsu.edu to begin researching programs. You can search by program type, academic subject, program duration, or you can utilize the map tool, which will show you every program offered in the country you select.

3. Select the program in which you wish to participate.

4. Click “Apply Now” on your program’s information page.
   - Once you click the button, you should be directed to an application creation wizard. If you are a current Ball State student, select “Yes” on the first page.
     - NOTE: If you are NOT a current Ball State student, please contact the Study Abroad office by emailing studyabroad@bsu.edu for assistance.
   - Next, use your Ball State username and password to log in to the application.
   - Select the term you wish to study abroad and click “apply”. Here, you will see the checklist of what you need to do to complete your application.
   - All materials MUST be turned in by the program deadline.

5. Apply for the study abroad program by completing and submitting the materials listed on your application
   - Your study abroad advisor or faculty director will guide you through this process
   - If you have additional questions, or when you are ready to schedule an advising meeting, email the Study Abroad Office at studyabroad@bsu.edu
